A DAY AT THE 'OTHER' RACES

Unlike our Virtual Horse Racing, this is a day at the races like you would rarely see with not a horse in sight. Races range from "The Gold Pup" (a 9-yard hurdle dash for young dogs) to a Ski Cross Downhill Classic, participants in this event will be able to enjoy not just the competitive element of the "betting" but the very entertaining races themselves. Typical examples (notwithstanding the above) to be found on the race card include:

- Running With The Flock: a frenzy of wool!
- The Short Track Speed Skate Spectacular
- Who Moved My Cheese?: dramatic Gloucestershire cheese-rolling
- Strongman Sprint: fridge-shifting at speed...
- Trolley Ramp Dash: soaring over cakes whilst sat in a trolley

In short, it's huge amounts of fun and totally safe to boot. Guests are divided into their teams and select a team captain. Virtual funds are provided and the teams must decide where to place their bets for each race before sitting back and enjoying the madness that unfolds in the race. Funds are automatically updated as our host lets teams know how they are all doing. There are 4-6 hilarious races to enjoy as the competitive nature grows as we get closer to the final race and finding out which team are to be crowned the champions.

MUSICAL BINGO

Welcome to bingo with a difference! Instead of numbers being called out, we create a personalised playlist of differently-themed groups of 50 songs which are played at random.

Everyone is sent bingo cards for each round beforehand with 25 song titles, band names or other themed rounds (e.g. film soundtracks, songs about Emergency Services etc) which should be printed out and kept to hand as players then cross the songs off as they're played (don't worry, we tell you the name in case you're not sure) while playing for lines, corners and full house.

We encourage players to sing and dance along to the songs while spotlighting people on the Zoom call for bonus points. This has a domino effect and before long, just about everyone ends up on their feet dancing and singing.

We can provide a wide variety of quizzes, from fun and slightly easier to challenging and difficult for the serious eggheads.

Our “Test the Nation” competition would see competitors completing rounds based on different subjects – with a multiple-choice answering format (and very limited time to do so, so forget using Google!).
